

Louisiana Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative: Louisiana Graziers Tell Their Story

www.louisianaglci.org

Our Mission

We are dedicated to cultivating a balance between economic and environmental profitability through voluntary instruction and practical support to Louisiana landowners.

Our History

- 1991 National GLCI formed
- 1997 Louisiana GLCI formed
- 2005 Grazing Groups active statewide
- 2013 became a 501(c)(3) organization
- 2016 hired first employee

Board of Directors

- Resource Conservation and Development
- Louisiana Forestry Association
- Cattle Producers of Louisiana
- Louisiana Soil and Water Conservation Districts
- Louisiana Forage and Grassland Council
- Six At-Large Members

Past Events

- Soil Quality Workshop Series
- Tallgrass Prairie Workshop
- Implementing a Silvopasture System
- Red River Grazing Conference
- Pasture Walks
- Outreach to High Schools/Middle Schools

Upcoming Events

- 2.24.18 Profitable Farm Systems
- 4.20.18 Mob Grazing Workshop
- 5.9-11.18 Louisiana Farms Bus Tour
- 6.18 Grazing Management “College”
- ? University Outreach

Get Involved

The World is Run by the People Who Show Up

Our Next Meeting

Friday March 9, 2018 at 9:00 AM

USDA Conference Room
Building B
3727 Government Street
Alexandria, LA

www.louisianaglci.org

Smart Grazing with a Vision