

TRYCERA®

Sugarcane Use Update

Trycera Sec. 18 Use Area

- Sec. 18 Quarantine Emergency Exemption Label 17LA01 granted effective Feb. 10, 2017 – May 31, 2020
- Sec. 18 Quarantine Emergency Exemption Label 20LA01 granted effective Oct. 2, 2020– May 31, 2021
- Sec. 18 Specific Emergency Exemption Label 21LA01 granted effective Oct. 1, 2021 – May 31, 2022
- Sec. 18 Specific Emergency Exemption Label 22LA02 granted effective Oct. 3, 2022 – May 31, 2023
- Will submit for another Sec. 18 to cover needs until EPA approves residues and we can add use to Sec. 3 label

- Applications are limited to Oct. 1st to May 31
- Use rate is 0.7 -2.1 qts/A
- Can make 2 apps/year at a max of 4.2 qts/A
- Recommend an adjuvant like Dyne-Amic® or Agri-Dex®
- No aerial applications, ground rigs only
- Recommended spray volume - 15 gpa
- Target Divine Nightshade at 4 – 24 inches tall

- Current Sec. 18 label allows for use through May 31, 2023
- Trycera has controlled Divine Nightshade in sugarcane in 16 parishes
- The average use rate has been 1.4 qts/A
- IR-4 residue trial is complete and report being written
- IR-4 submitted the final report and petition to establish a residue tolerance to EPA in Nov., 2022
- PRIA Date – February 25, 2024
- Trycera is the only triclopyr label for use in sugarcane

For Additional Information contact:

- Michael Kenty, PhD – Product Specialist
  - (901) 409-6525
  - kentym@helenaagri.com
- James DeMoss – Product Manager
  - (318) 347-6786
  - demossj@helenaagri.com

Any Questions?

Always read and follow label directions.

HelenaAgri.com | All product and company names are trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective companies.

©2023 Helena Holding Company