Policy is built by producers and vetted through the organization—not written in a vacuum.

- Listening & gathering
- Drafting & refining
- Review & alignment
- Adoption
- Execution

WHY THIS MATTERS TO YOU

- Farm Bureau policy work is a “signal” of producer priorities statewide
- Committees are a two-way channel:
  - producers → policy direction
  - research/industry → insights, data, practical solutions
- Collaboration opportunities:
  - committee briefings
  - educational sessions
  - issue-specific workgroups
  - research translation and real-world impact feedback loops
